The Valentine's Day menu offers a refined six-course menu, including a mushroom burger with truffle-flavored hen's butter and a "Macau" Artichoke with a heart of cherry blossom and fresh coriander... A trio of artists from the renowned «Palace Band» will lend an enchanting musical touch to the dinner. Brimming with emotion, Cristina Macedon's voice performs a repertoire of the great international songs with a blend of charm and sensitivity, accompanied with great talent by François Latry on piano and synth bass and Jérôme Durand on drums and as a backing vocalist.

Osetra gold caviar for starters, followed by blue lobster, chicken from the Cour d'Armoise, green asparagus and ravioli with herbs, among other delicacies... The eight-course dinner at the double Michelin-starred restaurant Le Gabriel takes on a very special glow for Valentine's Day. While various culinary delights are successively presented, an elegant duo of musicians combines jazz and pop standards, from Franck Sinatra to David Bowie, Ray Charles to the Beatles, with some sunny incursions into the world of Brazilian bossa nova, for an even greater sense of escapism...
